We don't have any tokens set aside for staking.

But to enhance your gaming experience, you can purchase our utility NFTs, which are unique for each game and available in limited quantities.

These NFTs can be acquired with $PULSE or stablecoins supported by EvoChain. The proceeds from these purchases are utilized for various purposes such as buybacks, staking, marketing and development.

Aeon Sentinel

Our first Game

Embark on an interstellar journey in "Aeon Sentinel", a dynamic, futuristic tower defense game set in a distant galaxy. With cutting-edge technology and strategic prowess, defend your base against relentless alien forces. Assemble an elite team of Sentinels, each with unique abilities, and harness the power of advanced weaponry. Traverse diverse landscapes, from alien worlds to deep space and discover the truth behind the invasion. Fight for the survival of humanity in this epic Sci-Fi adventure!

Building your own Aeon Sentinel

Dive into a world of endless possibilities with our revolutionary NFTs! Seamlessly swap between levels, maps and towers to create your unique gaming experience. Dominate the competition with strategic brilliance and personalized gameplay like never before. Unleash your full potential and redefine the limits of the game!

Earn Tokens

We have various competitions hosted on uniquely crafted maps where top performers receive tokens. In addition, playing on any NFT map also offers you the chance to earn while you play. For the basic games, these competitions serve as the sole means to earn tokens.

Aeon Sentinel NFT's

Styling NFT's

These NFTs allow you to customize the appearance of your game, including color schemes, tower styles and enemies. In essence, you can personalize your own game and modify its appearance at any time you like!

Map NFT's

Our Map NFTs grant you access to new and exclusive maps! Just like the Styling NFTs, you can definitely trade them. However, once you sell your NFT, you forfeit access to the content. Until you buy it again.
